A zoning change that will allow a 38-acre development to be built on a longtime farm near Holiday Manor shopping center was approved by the Louisville Metro Council last night.

The Midlands development, east of the Watterson Expressway and south of Ky. 22, will be built in phases over several years, with much of the construction waiting until work begins on a new Watterson interchange at Westport Road, about a mile south of the site.

Plans call for 117 condominiums, 192 apartments, a 150-room, six-story hotel, 119,500 square feet of retail space, one or more restaurants and office space. ...
